

NEW TESTAMENT ABSTRACTS

Weston Jesuit School of Theology
Cambridge, Massachusetts

Vol.: 1	Num.: 58	Pag.: 171
---------	----------	-----------

A. MARCHADOUR, Venite e vedrete. Commento al Vangelo di Giovanni, trans. D. Caldiroli, Lettura pastorale della Bibbia (Bologna: Dehoniane, 2013, paper €28) 274 pp. Bibliography. ISBN: 978-88-10-21133-5.

The Italian version of "Venez et vous verrez." Nouveau commentaire de l'Évangile de Jean (2011), this volume first provides a six-page introduction to John's Gospel and treats the hymn in Jn 1:1-18 as the suprahistorical preface and the beginnings of the revelation in 1:19-51 as the historical preface. Next it discusses the Book of Signs in chapters 2-12: from Cana to Cana (chaps. 2-4), Jesus and the principal Jewish festivals (5-10), and Jesus makes his way to the "hour" and to glory (11-12). Then it considers the Book of Glory (Love) in chapters 13-21: the Last Supper (13:1-38), the farewell discourses (14:1-17:26), the passion narrative (18:1-19:42), Jesus risen (20:1-31), and epilogue (21:1-25). A five-page appendix on the literary characteristics of John's Gospel is included. Marchadour is also the author of I personaggi del Vangelo di Giovanni. Specchio per una cristologia narrativa (2nd ed., 2013).