R. PENNA, L'evangelo come criterio di vita. Indicazioni paoline, Biblica (Bologna: Dehoniane, 2009, paper €19.50) 227 pp. ISBN: 978-88-10-22144-0.

The twenty essays on Paul and his writings in this volume treat such topics as Paul the apostle as “hermit” of Jesus Christ; Paul as apostolic slave and the ministerial identity of the church in Romans; the new covenant in Jesus Christ; proclaiming Christian freedom today; the Holy Spirit and vocation; the New Adam and the dance of life; faith and salvation in the letter to the Romans; Colossians and Ephesians—a comparative reading; the Pauline dialectic between the possibility and impossibility of knowing God; Christianity and Greek culture; and Corinth—the encounter between the Greek city and the gospel. Penna is the author of Lettera ai Romani (3 vols., 2004-2008).
